

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE FOR WOMEN (Autonomous)
(Constituent College of Osmania University, Reaccredited with 'A' Grade by NAAC)
Women Study's Centre, UCW & Women Cell, UCW

Invites you to

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATIONS

Topic – Women in Leadership: Legal Awareness & Legal Reforms

In Collaboration with

Telangana State Legal Service Authority (TSLSA) & Metropolitan Legal Service Authority
(MLSA)

Date: 8th March 2021, Time: 10.30 AM

Venue: PG Seminar Hall, UCW

REPORT

International Women's Day celebrations at University College for Women, Koti, Hyderabad took place on 8th March 2021 in collaboration with Metropolitan Legal Services Authority (MLSA) and was organized by Women Study's Center and Women Cell of the college.

The Chief Guest of the Program Mrs. Anupama Chakravarthy, Member Secretary, TSLSA, Telangana High Court spoke on how the role of women is changing in the present world. She explained how the paradigm shift of women's mindset influences the society. She emphasized that every woman should always believe in herself and keeping one's ego aside should work with dedication in whatever field they choose. She stressed that each one should understand the real meaning of women empowerment.

The Guest of Honor Mr. Radhakrishna Chauhan, Member Secretary, MLSA appreciated the various roles played by Women so effectively in the society. He elaborated on various laws and judicial support rendered to woman. He also assured that MLSA will provide free legal services to all the needy girls and women.

Principal Prof. A. Roja Rani and Vice-principal Dr. M. Kavita greeted everyone and spoke on the importance of Women's day and how girls should be self-motivated and work towards their goals.

Dr. V. Srilatha, Director, Women Study's Center, spoke about the significance of the program. She highlighted on the importance of legal knowledge and how to righteously use it.

Dr. G. Vijaya Lakshmi, Coordinator, Women Cell proposed a formal vote of thanks.

Circle Head and Dylan Circle Head of Punjab National Bank felicitated few women staff from both teaching and non-teaching as a token of appreciation on the eve of women's day. They utilized the opportunity to highlight on the bank policies and loans suitable for women.

