

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Veeranari Chakali Iamma Women's University, formerly, Osmania University College for Women is located in the historic Koti Residency. This state University in Hyderabad has been a premier institution for women's education since its establishment in 1924. The 42-acre campus blends heritage with modern learning, offering about 50 undergraduate and postgraduate programs.

Renamed in 2024 after Telangana freedom fighter Veeranari Chakali Iamma, the university is UGC recognized and it stands for women's empowerment, academic excellence, and social progress. Its iconic main building is listed as a heritage site by INTACH and was featured in the 2025 World Monuments Watch.
